Policies regarding delivery of vocational qualifications on website

GeSS Education delivers qualifications on behalf of partner RTOs (Colleges) under Third Party Agreements lodged with Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA). GeSS Education follows partner RTOs policies and procedures at all times. These policies and procedures are outlined in each RTOs Student Handbook, for example, Privacy Policy, Refund Policy, Training & Assessment policy and procedures (Delivery of Courses). GeSS Education's enrolment form also supports this statement, and students are fully aware that enrolment into a vocational qualification outlined on GeSS Education's website means that they will be issued their qualification, upon successful completion, by the RTO relevant to their chosen qualification.

Please refer to RTO Student Handbooks for further information on RTO Policies & Procedures.

Ordering Resources

GeSS Education requires all orders to be paid for before distribution. GeSS Education will issue a tax invoice upon receipt of an order. Clients need to use the invoice number as their reference when paying the invoice. Orders will be processed within 48 hours of confirmation of receipt of payment.

Prices for Resources

Prices detailed in GeSS Education's promotional material, order forms and website are recommended retail prices and subject to change without notice. GeSS Education will endeavour to have stock available for any item promoted on its website, however, will not be liable if this does not eventuate due to unforeseen circumstances. The client is responsible for any taxes, duties or other liabilities imposed by any government agency, including without limitation, any customs duty, goods and services taxes or any value added tax imposed on any products or services acquired or ordered by you from GeSS Education.
